

OECD
Better Life
Initiative

Economic Crisis, the Quality of Work and Social Integration: The European Experience in the Great Recession

Findings from the European Social Survey

OECD Conference Center, Paris, France

21st January 2013

14:00 – 17:30

- 14.00-14.05 Introduction OECD: Marco Mira D'Ercole (OECD Statistics Division)
- 14.05-14.15 Introduction European Social Survey: Rory Fitzgerald, ESS Director
Introduction Work Family and Well-being Module: Duncan Gallie, Research Team Leader
- 14.15-15.15 ESS Findings (i) The Impact of the Crisis on Quality of Work

Michael Tahlin: Employment in the Crisis and the changing skill distribution
Ying Zhou: Economic Downturn and Continuing Training
Duncan Gallie/ Ying Zhou: Job Control and Work Stress
Helen Russell: Work-Life Conflict

Q&A: moderated by Alexander Hijzen (OECD Employment Directorate)
- 15.15-15.35 Coffee
- 15.35 – 16.35 ESS Findings (ii) The impact of the crisis on other work-related aspects of well-being

Hande Inanc: Job Insecurity and the Peripheral Workforce
Nadia Steiber: Economic Downturn and Work Motivation
Helen Russell: Recession and Subjective Well-Being
Javier Polavieja: Economic Crisis and Institutional Legitimacy

Q&A: moderated by Anne St. Martin (OECD Statistics Division)
- 16.35-17.30 Policy Session and Discussion

Panellists: Bea Cantillon (University of Antwerp), Jean-Paul Tricart (European Commission); Mark Keese (OECD Employment Directorate)
- 17.30 Closing Remarks (OECD)
- 17.30-18.15 Reception