Information on Tax Identification Numbers

Section I – TIN Description

Please provide here a narrative description of the criteria governing the issuance of the TIN (e.g. some jurisdictions may only issue TINs to individuals, or to individuals that are filing tax returns; other jurisdictions may also issue TINs to (a subset of) Entities). In addition, information about the TIN issuing bodies, as well as the taxes for which the TIN is used as means of identification (e.g. income tax, wage tax, withholding taxes, VAT, etc.). In case a jurisdiction issues separate TINs for different taxes (e.g., income taxes, VAT, etc.), please only provide information in relation to the TINs you would expect to be provided for identification purposes in the context of the CRS.

Belize Tax Service is the only office facilitating the issuance of a Tax Identification Numbers. Individual, Partnership, and Limited Liability Companies should register with the Tax department before the commencement of operation. Shareholders of companies are also issued a Tax Identification Number. Employers should register their employees upon employment to obtain a TIN, only for first time employment. Tax Identification Number does not change for individuals (employees). However, TINs change for Individual and Partnership businesses upon changing to a Limited Liability Company. Tax Identification Numbers are issued for:

Business Tax
General Sales Tax
Contract Tax
Employee Income Tax.
Importers & Exporter (Custom purposes)
Corporate Income Tax (Only Petroleum activities)

Different TINs are not issued for different tax types. Tax Identification Number issued for Business Tax, General Sales Tax and Contract Tax will use the same TIN. To identify the different taxes, codes(numbers) are use at the end of the TINs to identify the tax type.

Furthermore, jurisdictions may provide any useful information regarding the validity and frequency of renewal of TINs, as well as any recent changes made to the structure of their TINs.

Any further information regarding TINs that jurisdictions deem useful for publication on the CRS Portal may also be added in this narrative section.
