A. Preventing Disputes
1.	Are agreements reached by your competent authority to resolve difficulties or doubts arising as to the interpretation or application of your tax treaties in relation to issues of a general nature which concern, or which may concern, a category of taxpayers published?	Yes	Agreements received by the Egyptian Tax Authority (ETA) vary in nature, some to resolve difficulties or doubts arising from the interpretation or application of the Egyptian double tax treaties in relation to issues of a general nature which concern, or which may concern a specific transaction related to the taxpayer's business model.	-
2.	Are bilateral APA programmes implemented? If yes:	No	The Egyptian TP Guidelines were issued by Ministerial Decree No. 547 of 2018.. The guidelines introduced a formal APA system under which ETA will only apply unilateral APAs until further official notice. However, ETA plans to apply bilateral APAs as part of its future work that will include further development of the guidelines as needed, but will do so after ETA and taxpayers have had good precedence with the Egyptian system, via the application of unilateral APAs. Thus, the conclusion of Bilateral APAs and Multilateral APAs is not enacted by the ETA until this day.	-

b.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Are there specific timeline for the filing of an APA request?</li> </ul>	Yes	According to the Egyptian Transfer Pricing Guidelines, a pre-filing meeting request for a unilateral APA should be made at least six months prior to the first day proposed to be covered by the APA.	-
c.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Are rules, guidelines and procedures on how taxpayers can access and use</li> </ul>	No	The Egyptian Transfer Pricing Guidelines only address the details of applying for and processing a unilateral APA,	-

	bilateral APAs, including the specific information and documentation that should be submitted in a taxpayer's request for bilateral APA assistance, publicly available?		since bilateral APAs are not effective at this point (i.e. a taxpayer resident in Egypt for tax purposes cannot apply for a bilateral APA).
d.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Are there any fees charged to taxpayers for a bilateral APA request?</li> </ul>	N/A	-	-
e.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Are statistics relating to bilateral APAs publicly available?</li> </ul>	N/A	-	-
3.	Is training provided to your officials involved in the auditing /examination of taxpayers to ensure that any assessments made by them are in accordance with the provisions of your tax treaties?	Yes	In cooperation with the OECD, ETA officials are enrolled on condensed international tax training programme which includes tax treaties audit and examination.	-
4.	Is other information available on preventing tax treaty-related disputes?	No	-	-

Notes:

1. An APA is an “arrangement that determines, in advance of controlled transactions, an appropriate set of criteria (e.g. method, comparables and appropriate adjustments thereto, critical assumptions as to future events) for the determination of the transfer pricing for those transactions over a fixed period of time”. (see definition of APA in the OECD Transfer Pricing Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises and Tax Administrations (“Transfer Pricing Guidelines”)).

2. Situations may arise in which the issues resolved through an APA are relevant with respect to previous filed tax years not included within the original scope of the APA. The concept of “roll-back” is further elaborated in paragraph 4.136 of Section F (Advance pricing arrangement) of Chapter IV of the Transfer Pricing Guidelines and in paragraph 69 of Section D.4.2 (Possible retrospective application (“Roll back”)) of the Annex to Chapter IV (Guidelines for Conducting Advance Pricing Arrangements under the Mutual Agreement Procedure (“MAP APAs”)) of the Transfer Pricing Guidelines. Simply put, the “roll-back” of the APA is understood to mean that the outcome of the APA is applied to previous filed tax years not included within the original scope of the APA.
