	Notes:	1) Colombia's definition of MAP corresponds to the definitions contained in Annex C of the MAP Statistics Reporting Framework. As a result, a MAP requested by one of the treaty partners falling under the de minimis rule was excluded in order to notify the residence certification procedure in Colombia and allow Colombian taxpayers to claim a refund for excess withholding applied.
	2) The definitions used to categorise are those included in the MAP Statistics Reporting Framework.

Notes:

Colombia received one request during 2018 from an individual taxpayer for a residence case with the treaty partner. Because Colombia was issuing MAP Guidance with new requirements for the requests, it has sent a notice to the taxpayer attorneys to resubmit the case with the new MAP Guidance requirements. Colombia has been notified by the treaty partner of the submission in 2018 by that taxpayer of the same MAP request before the treaty partner's Competent Authority. The "start" date will be the earlier date which in this case corresponds to the filing date before the treaty partner as in Colombia the taxpayer will resubmit the request during 2019.

Please note that the statistics included below reflect the jurisdiction's original submission from the relevant reporting year and do not include any corrections made subsequent to its publication on the OECD website.
