A. Preventing Disputes
1.	Are agreements reached by your competent authority to resolve difficulties or doubts arising as to the interpretation or application of your tax treaties in relation to issues of a general nature which concern, or which may concern, a category of taxpayers published?	Yes	These are published on Inland Revenue's tax policy website when completed with agreement from the treaty partner concerned (e.g. US/NZ mutual agreement on fiscally transparent entities of 8 February 2005, superseded by subsequent protocol).	http://taxpolicy.ird.govt.nz/tax-treaties
2.	Are bilateral APA ⁴ programmes implemented?	Yes		http://www.ird.govt.nz/international-

¹ Please indicate "YES" if your jurisdiction's response to the question is Yes.
Please indicate "NO" if your jurisdiction's response to the question is No.
Please indicate "SEE DETAILED EXPLANATION" if your jurisdiction is of the view that a "YES" or "NO" does not reflect your jurisdiction's response to the question.

² Please provide a detailed explanation to your jurisdiction's response to the question. The description should allow readers to gain a good understanding of the area covered by the question, where readers could then refer to the specific details relating to that area based on the publicly available information and guidance.

³ Please provide the web address where information is available. If the information is not available online, please indicate where such information is available. If no information or guidance is provided by your jurisdiction, please indicate "information not available".

In completing this field, any rules, guidelines, materials published by your jurisdiction which are related to the question asked should be included. The specific web address to these rules, guidelines and materials should be provided and the specific section(s), paragraph(s) and page(s) of these documents where the relevant information can be found should be cited.

a.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Are roll-back⁵ of APAs provided for in the bilateral APA programmes? 	Yes	If the APA has been made pursuant to a treaty that contains a specific time limit override then there is no restriction on rolling back the agreed transfer pricing methodology.	http://www.ird.govt.nz/international-tax/double-tax-agreements/mutual-agreement-procedure
b.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Are there specific timelines for the filing of an APA request? 	No
c.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Are rules, guidelines and procedures on how taxpayers can access and use bilateral APAs, including the specific information and documentation that should be submitted in a taxpayer's request for bilateral APA 	Yes	Information required to facilitate an APA request is set out in public guidance on advance pricing agreements.	http://www.ird.govt.nz/international-tax/business/transfer-pricing/practice-issues/advance-pricing-agreements

⁵ Situations may arise in which the issues resolved through an APA are relevant with respect to previous filed tax years not included within the original scope of the APA. The concept of “roll-back” is further elaborated in paragraph 4.136 of Section F (Advance pricing arrangement) of Chapter IV of the Transfer Pricing Guidelines and in paragraph 69 of Section D.4.2 (Possible retrospective application (“Roll back”)) of the Annex to Chapter IV (Guidelines for Conducting Advance Pricing Arrangements under the Mutual Agreement Procedure (“MAP APAs”)) of the Transfer Pricing Guidelines. Simply put, the “roll-back” of the APA is understood to mean that the outcome of the APA is applied to previous filed tax years not included within the original scope of the APA.
