

SAVE THE DATE

SECOND ANNUAL FORUM ON TAX AND CRIME

A whole of government approach to fighting illicit financial flows

14-15 June 2012

Rome, Italy

For registration and more information contact:
Alina.Kholodov@oecd.org

« Fighting economic crime requires greater transparency and improved efforts to make the most of the capacity of different government agencies to work together... »

Mr. Roger Schjerva, State Secretary, Ministry of Finance, Norway

- What? A global dialogue on fighting illicit financial flows that will explore ways to:
- strengthen inter-agency cooperation among tax administrations, law enforcement, and other government agencies
 - improve understanding and use of international cooperation mechanisms to fight financial crime
 - respond to developing countries' challenges in tackling illicit financial flows

When? 14-15 June 2012, back-to-back with FATF Plenary Meeting in Rome, Italy

For whom? Representatives from tax administrations, finance and justice ministries, financial intelligence units, central banks and other agencies, FATF and International Organisations

www.oecd.org/ctp/taxcrimes

