

- ✓ These reports allow tax officials to monitor and understand multiple issues from different perspectives, for example: frequent inconsistencies, amounts involved, among others.
- ✓ The visualization of the income tax returns, and the identified inconsistencies allow the design of corrective actions that consider the specific level of non-compliance.
- ✓ The platform adopted to implement this interactive reporting tool ensures an institutional-wide availability, where information can be shared among officials and accessed by multiple users simultaneously.

